

General Study

American Political Science Association Minority Fellowship

The APSA Minority Fellows Program designates up to twelve stipend minority fellows each year. Additional applicants who do not receive funds from the Association may also be recognized and recommended for admission and financial support to graduate political science programs. Fellows with stipends receive a $4,000 fellowship that is disbursed in two $2,000 payments--one at the end of their first graduate year and one at the end of their second--provided that they remain in good academic standing. APSA can disburse some of the funds at the start of the academic year by request of the student. Awards are based on students' undergraduate or graduate course work, GPA, personal statement and resume, extracurricular activities, GRE scores, personal and recommendations from faculty.

Award: $4,000

Eligibility: Minority

Korea Foundation Fellowship Program

The Foundation provides support for Korean Studies programs of foreign universities and research institutes, fellowship programs and other areas. Fellowships are designed to nurture foreign experts in Korean Studies and to facilitate their research activities

Award: Tuition

Eligibility: PhD candidate studying Korea, must have Korean language skills

Henry Luce Foundation Luce Scholars Program

The program is geared to the non-specialist: Applications cannot be considered from those who already have had significant exposure to Asian culture or who have a specific career interest in Asian affairs.

Area: Asia

Award: Travel, medical insurance, living expenses

Eligibility: US Citizen, Upper age limit is 29 by September 1st of application year.

P.E.O International Peace Scholarship Fund

P.E.O. International Peace Scholarships are awarded annually to women who are citizens of countries other than the United States or Canada for graduate study in a degree program from schools in the United States and Canada. The maximum amount for a full twelve (12) months of study is $12,500.

Eligibility: Women, non-US citizens, still in coursework

UW-Madison LGBT Fellowship

The George L. Mosse Distinguished Graduate Fellowship in LGBT History is intended to attract and support outstanding PhD candidates who wish to study some aspect of LGBT history in any area of the world. The fellowship package consists of four and one half years of guaranteed support; a combination of direct fellowship aid, teaching and research assistantship, and writing support.

Topic: LGBT History, can be international

Award: 4.5 years of funding, may include TA/RA ship

Eligibility: UW student

UW Madison Center for Southeast Asian Studies Center Fellowship

The Center for Southeast Asian Studies intends to award up to seven (7) FLAS fellowships to graduate students who will be enrolled in 2017-18 for beginning (1st-year), intermediate (2nd-year) or advanced (3rd-year) level study of Filipino (Tagalog), Hmong, Indonesian, Thai, or Vietnamese at UW-Madison.

Award: Research assistance-ship at UW

Eligibility: In residence at UW